Several Errors

Families in this book were in the early stages of everyone's research. So have many errors.

Though most came from Thomas I or Rev. James Fitch some of the early work is flawed.

These were e-mail contacts to me or to Karen in California.

weeks in the hospital at Nashville. From the latter place he was transferred to Jeffersonville, Indiana, and after remaining there two weeks, was sent to Camp Denison, Ohio, where he obtained his final discharge in June, 1865.

After the termination of hostilities Mr. Van Auker, with health somewhat impaired but a consciousness of duty well performed, returned to his Mahoning county home and resumed his old employment on the farm. These peaceful pursuits were not interrupted by any event of especial importance until 1898, when Mr. Van Auker was elected to the office of county commissioner. He discharged his duties so satisfactorily in this important place and exhibited such good judgment in managing public business that in 1900 he was honored and endorsed by a re-election. In 1854 he was united in marriage with Sylvia A., daughter of Joseph Jackson, by whom he had seven children, six of these growing to maturity, and five still surviving, as follows: Robert T.; John F.; Charles S.; Anna J., wife of Charles Ellis; and Ida M., wife of Frederick Gough. Mr. Van Auker renews old time recollections and the spirit of comradeship by his membership in David Tod Post No. 29, G. A. R. But as a public man and private citizen he enjoys the esteem and good will of his neighbors in Mahoning county. He cast his first vote for John C. Fremont, in 1856, and since that time he has always been an ardent supporter and an active worker for the principles of the Republican party.

JOHN DURR.

John Durr, one of the successful farmers of Green township, Mahoning county, Ohio, is descended from an old and honorable family, founded in America by George Durr, his grandfather. George Durr, who was a native of Germany, emigrated with his wife and five children to America at a very early day, locating in Maryland near Baltimore. He was a farmer, owning a small property of less than one hundred acres.

In 1804 three of his children, Michael, Elizabeth and Mary, moved to Ohio, purchasing section 7 in Green township, Mahoning county. Michael lived in his wagon for some time, then built a log house. Thoroughly energetic, he began clearing off his land, and continued improving it until he had a fine property of two hundred acres. Michael was born in 1766 and in 1815 he married Elizabeth Snider. To this union there were born nine children, namely: George, 1817; Mary, 1819; Jacob, 1820; Magdalene, 1822; John, September 16, 1825; Elizabeth, 1827; Michael, 1831; David, 1833; Josiah, 1835. Of these Mary, Magdalene, Elizabeth and Josiah are deceased. Michael was a member of the Lutheran church. His death occurred in 1849, and his wife died in December, 1889, and she was born in Pennsylvania in 1797. Of the two hundred acres owned by Michael in 1804, none now remains in the family, although his descendants have large farms adjoining.

John Durr, our subject, has always followed the calling of a farmer and has met with unqualified success in his undertakings. His first purchase of land was made in 1860 and consisted of thirty acres, to which he added fifty acres which he had received as a gift from an aunt. This land was all in a wild state, but by hard work he reduced it to a fine state of cultivation, and now has one of the most valuable farms in the county.

Mr. Durr was twice married, his first wife having been Ellen Reed, whom he married in 1855. To this union there were born no children, and she died in 1858. The second wife of Mr. Durr was Sarah Fitch, and she died January 26, 1899, having had no children. The Fitch family probably dates back to the Mayflower, and there is definite record of Thomas Fitch of Connecticut receiving a land grant from the British crown in 1665. His son Thomas purchased a large tract later in the same state. A third Thomas was governor of Connecticut from 1754 to 1761, and he was the father of Timothy. Timothy was the father of Thomas, born September 17, 1786, and who married Nancy Carver, born July 11, 1786, and these children were born to them: Henry, March 22, 1807; Nancy, January 17, 1809; Charles, December 10, 1810; Susan, September 23, 1814; Samuel, July 10, 1820; Sallie E., July 19, 1823. Henry married Rebecca Bowman, and they had the following children: Mrs. Sarah Durr, deceased, born in Ellsworth township, August 25, 1831; Cyrus, June 28, 1833; Charles C., March 9, 1835; Lucy A., May 7, 1837; Elizabeth E., August 6, 1839; Rebecca S., February 3, 1842; Laura A., June 6, 1844; Mary B., November 17, 1846; Henry B., April 19, 1849; Alice B., December 10, 1851; Albert H., December 19, 1854. Mrs. Hattie M. (Fitch) Gordon, the daughter of Mrs. Rebecca S. (Fitch) Case and the niece of John Durr was born August 10, 1878, and is a most estimable lady. Her maternal grandmother was Rebecca Bowman, who became the wife of Henry Fitch. The Bowmans are of German extraction, and David Bowman founded the family in Easton, Ohio. David was born in Wuertemberg, and emigrated to America in 1755 with his two children. He located in Philadelphia in 1757. On the voyage over, Philip C. was born, and he afterwards became a soldier in the Revolutionary war, participating in the battles of Monmouth, Germantown and Brandywine. After the war he settled in Fayette county, Pennsylvania, and in 1806 he removed to what is now Green township, Mahoning county. He married Catherine Fast, and they had twelve children, and one of his sons, Christian, was born in 1782 and died in 1852, having been married to Elizabeth Kreager in 1803; she was born in 1781 and died in 1864. Their family consisted of seven children who became useful citizens of Green township.

John Durr is a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, to which he contributes very liberally. He is a practical farmer, a quiet, peaceable citizen and one who enjoys in the highest degree the confidence of his fellow townsmen. His father was a prominent man, and prominently identified with the making of Mahoning county, helping to lay out many of the roads and clearing up many acres of land.

JONAS M. KNOPP.

Jonas M. Knopp is one of the prosperous young farmers of Green township, where his landed possessions of one hundred and twenty-three acres constitute one of the best farms in the locality. He was born here on the 26th of May, 1856, and is a son of Samuel and Catherine Knopp, the former a native of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, and the latter of Franklin county, that state. In early life they came with their respective parents to Ohio. Samuel Knopp was a son of Jacob and Rebecca Knopp, who were also natives of Pennsylvania, and about 1838 they came to Ohio, settling in Beaver township, Mahoning county. Here the grandfather purchased eighty acres of land. He was a blacksmith by trade, and become blind from the effects of the fire. All who knew him had for him the highest respect for his sterling worth, and both he and his wife lived in harmony with the teachings and principles of the Mennonite church, to which they belonged. Both were advanced in years when they were called to their final rest. In their family were: Kate, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Barbara, Benjamin, Samuel and Jacob.

Samuel Knopp was born in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, in 1822. After arriving at years of maturity he purchased a small tract of land, and to this he added from time to time as he found it possible to make further payments upon his property. His first purchase, of seventy-three acres, came into his possession in 1849, and he extended the boundary of his farm until it comprised one hundred and twenty-three acres. His life was one of marked industry, supplemented by economy and perseverance. He married Nancy Metzler, and to them was born a son Abraham. For his second wife he chose Catherine Miller, whom he married in 1850, and they became the parents of four children, two of whom are now living: James M. and Susan. The father died in 1860, and his wife, long surviving him, passed away March 28, 1895. She was born in Franklin county, Pennsyl-

Verna Louise "Cookie" Fitch Sisco, 64

EAST LIVERPOOL — Verna Louise "Cookie" Fitch Sisco, 64, of Dairy Lane, East Liverpool, died at her residence on Monday, Sept. 17, 2007, following a brief illness.

She was born in East Liverpool on Dec. 21, 1942, a daughter of the late Bernard Vernon and Georgia Loretta (Baker) Fitch, but resided on a 100-acre farm in Amsterdam, Ohio, since 1986, where she enjoyed deer hunting.

She was formerly employed at Mahoning Bank in Youngstown; Ferro Corp. Louthan Plant; First National Bank; Hill's Department Store in East Liverpool; Homer Laughlin China Co. in Newell; and retired after 20 years as a Stationary Steam Engineer in the operations department at Ohio Edison Co. in Stratton, Ohio.

Established before 1820, the family was proved to be one of the first families in Ohio. Cookie was co-founder of genealogypitstop.com; a member of Captain Nathaniel Mills Chapter; Daughter of the American Revolution in Hurst, Texas; The Continental Society; Daughters of the Indian Wars, Geronimo Chapter, Texas; Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, at large; VFW Post 66 Ladies Auxiliary in East Liverpool; American Legion Post 114 Ladies Auxiliary in Newell; Women of the Moose, Chapter 642, East Liverpool; Former member of the Women's Inter-City Pool League in East Liverpool; Ft. Steuben Stamp Club; The Philatelic Society of Pittsburgh; Christmas Seal & Charity Stamp Society; Ohio Valley Coin Assoc.; National Rifle Assoc.; Amateur Trapshooting Assoc.; Utility Workers Union of America, AFL-CIO, Local 457; and Past Vice President and Director of Holdings, Tri State Genealogical and Historical Society, Newell.

She won the Ladies Trophies at the Ohio State Trapshoot in 1982, and the Grand American Trapshoot in 1985, both at Vandalia, Ohio

She leaves her loving daughter, Jo Lynn Hughes, and three lovely grandchildren: Chelsea Nicole Curran, Brittany Morgan Hughes and Adam Eugene Hughes, all of East Liverpool; one precious great-granddaughter, Kennidy Lynn Curran; and two sisters: Barbara Diane Show of Lisbon, and Marlene Paulovich of Midland.

Besides her parents, her best friend and life companion, John Geoffrey Buchanan, preceded her in death.

Services will be held at the Calcutta Chapel of the Martin MacLean Altmeyer Funeral Homes at 11 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 21, 2007, with Tom Bullard, Chaplain at Valley Hospice officiating.

Burial will follow in Riverview Cemetery.

The family will be present to receive friends at the funeral home in Calcutta from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 20, 2007.

Family and friends may view this obituary, sign the guest book or send condolences online at www.altmeyer.com

For those who wish to keep a copy of Cookie's obituary, you will find it attached.

Cookie and I have been good friends, and seriously searching for our FITCH connection for well over 20 years. Most all FITCH's, in the USA, are related, the proving, and documenting, of that relationship is still the best genealogical challenge that will be accomplished. We became warm friends, disallowing the miles between us to become a barrier. On one visit to her farm, my Jack Russell Terrier, Gypsy, wanted to become better acquainted with the cows that were lined up at the fence. It made no matter, to Gypsy, that the cows had the definite advantage as Gypsy was blind. Dynamite does comes in small packages. Cookie was laughing so hard that she had to go inside to use the 'little girl's room'.

Cookie was a complete package, and shall be sorely missed by everyone she touched. Her mere presence lighted any area that was blessed with her presence. She shall continue to 'light up my life', in perpetuity.

Cookie belonged to many genealogical societies, of which one was the South Bay Cities Genealogical Society, Torrance, California. I came across a ten (10) year old email that lists other lineage organizations she pursued for membership. It reads:

- email dated: 07/03/00 from "Cookie" stated: "I now have 5 supplemental apps in for the DAR. I joined under Isaac Miller, Sr. Have supplements in for Isaac Miller, Jr, Joseph Bartlett, Ichabod Pomeroy, Moses Williamson and his son, John Williamson. I also joined the Continental Society Daughters of the Indian Wars under Robert Bartlett, who was killed by the indians in Northampton, Mass., on March 14, 1676, during King Phillip's War. I just sent supplements in to them for Moses Williamson, Lord Dunmore's War, and for Daniel Warren, King Phillip's War. It feels soooo good to be able to PROVE my lineage back that far. All this work was not for naught! Also joined the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War under Cassius Fitch, and have supplements approved for Solomon Milliron and James C. Wallace. And, -- - - I have requested apps from the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, and from the Sons and Daughters of the Pilgrims. Been a little busy with all this STUFF.

My deepest condolences go out to Cookie's family. Specifically to: Jodi who kept me informed over the past few, long weeks; and, Amy who shall be continuing on the genealogical adventure started by her aunt Cookie.

Shall have Cookie's obituary included in the next issue of The Beacon, our local genealogy newsletter. The issue should come out just before Thanksgiving. So very appropriate as we know how Cookie loved the holidays. Then, every day was a holiday for her, shown by her constant giving. A true believer that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

Shall be with you always, even if just in spirit, especially these next few, most difficult days.

Karen K. Fitch

Dear Friends and Family of Cookie,

Jodie came by this morning to drop off a letter that Aunt Cookie had her type up to be sent to all of you.
It is as follows:

My Dearest Friends:

If you are receiving this it means I am probably gone to the great beyond.
I just wanted to be able to tell you how much it means to me the way you touched my life and made such an impact. I so appreciate all of the lovely flowers, and cards saying such nice things about me that I could hear before I die.
I hope to carry a little of each of you with me, hopefully to Heaven.
And you know if I can find a way I will slip you all kinds of genealogy tidbits from the other side. My niece, Amy Hissom, will be taking charge of the family history. She's quite new at this so please help her whenever you can. I just want to let you know how much I loved and cared about each and every o ne of you. If I have left any one off of this list, please, please forward this to them.

Love you all,
Cookie

Dear Betty: Spoke with Cookie's daughter, last Saturday morning. Jodi said that Cookie slept most of the time, and was under 24/7 nursing care in her new home. The last time I spoke with Cookie, she said that her only wish was to spend one night in her new home. She bought a home in the City, East Liverpool, Ohio, when her farm went into escrow. As phone service had yet to be connected in the new house, was the reason I was unable to speak with Cookie. Jodi said that she would tell Cookie I called.

Received the following, when opened my email, this morning. kk

Hello Everyone!

It saddens me to have to inform you that my Auntie Cookie passed away last night at about 11:30pm.
She was surrounded by family and friends as she went peacefully. She is now in Heaven with my Grandma and Geoff, along with all the ancestors she kept alive through her research. Thank you so much for all of your letters!
Auntie Cookie loved hearing them as I read them to her. I can promise you that she was very thankful for all your love and concern. She was grinning ear to ear this past Friday as she was taken to her new house and I'm thankful that she was able to stay there before God called her home. Please feel free to write back or call!
God Bless all of you!

Sincerely,
Amy

Hello Everyone!

I am Cookie's niece, Amy. I was just with her yesterday. She is still the same, but I'm sure you all know how her attitude is. She makes my day everytime I'm with her.
We had a great visit and she got to see her first great nephew (my grandson)for the first time.
I will be seeing her again on Monday so feel free to email me again.

Sincerely,
Amy Hissom

Morning,
I just spoke with Cookie at her daughter's house.
She wishes everyone to know that her time is near. She is on hospice and thinks she maybe has a week left.
She asked for cards but a limit on the phone calls..Her voice is weak and her breathing makes it difficult to speak. I am sending her flowers now not after she passes. Our talk was very frank, she is well aware of how close she is to "going home." She is so brave. She can barely walk with her walker. She has plenty of pain meds. I asked her what we can do as a rememberance and naturally she said nothing...Cookie the independent to the end. The farm is sold, her email is not hooked up but she hopes it will be this week.
I pray she "slips gently into that dark night." I pray He welcomes her home.

Anita with tears and gratitude for knowing such a fine person. I am so happy I got to say "Good-bye."

VERNA LOUISE 'COOKIE' FITCH

Thomas Fitch	and	Anne Stacie
John Fitch	and	Rebecca Lindall
Nathaniel Fitch	and	_____
John Fitch	and	Elizabeth Beers
John Fitch	and	Elizabeth Lockwood
	and	Mary Scott
Joseph Fitch	and	Permelia Miller
Madison Lorenzo Dow Fitch	and	Sarah E. Bartlett
Cassius Marion Clay Fitch	and	Hannah J. Rose
Edgar Roscoe Fitch	and	Sarah Louise Milliren
Bernard Vernon Fitch	and	Georgia Loretta Baker
Verna Louise "Cookie' Fitch	and	Rudy Getz

Verna apparently had a varied life as she had 3 husbands

1. Robert Samuel Lowe he is dead
2. Daniel Nelson
3. Richard P. Kwasnik

So it looks like Verna and Rudy Getz were not married and they had a child:

Jo Lynn Fitch and Eugene Clinton Hughes

Very doubtful that Joseph belonged to John & Elizabeth or John and Mary
Census records 1790
No other local Records of a Joseph

We can find the family of Joseph in Buffalo just cannot connect him to our John
Quite sure it is a different family

Ancestors of Joseph Fitch

Generation No. 1

1. Joseph Fitch, born June 15, 1783 in _____, Conn.; died October 08, 1855 in North Twp., Lake Co., IN. He was the son of 2. John Fitch and 3. Mary Scott. He married (1) Permelia Miller. She was the daughter of Isaac Miller III and Lucretia Knap.

Notes for Joseph Fitch:
Courtesy of Verna "Cookie" (Fitch) Sisco.
Email received: 09/06/98, from Cookie. It reads as follows:
"I had a lovely letter from cousin Fern Price. She had a visit from Merry Fitch Goudy, from Texas. She is the daughter of Hudson Dakota Fitch, who was the son of Lester Madison Fitch, who was a son of our Madison. She brought the big old family bible, a big hard back, 6 inches thick. She said Madison's brothers were listed, but not Irene, his sister. Fern thinks because she may have been the youngest and born in Ohio.
Listed were:
John Watson Fitch born 1808 in New York
Cyrenus Cllapin (or Celapin)Fitch born March 22, 1813 in Erie County, New York.
And Madison born 1810, Buffalo, Erie County, New York.

Merry was only there about an hour at Fern's sister Alberta's house. Fern went there to see the Bible, but didn't get to copy it. DARN!!! Merry's sister, Mildred, owns the Bible, and told her not to leave it "NO WHERE!" I'm just glad Fern got to see it! We didn't have the information on Cyrenus, and didn't know that John W. was born in New York. Also, I had Sarah Bartlett Fitch, Madison's wife, as born in Cuyahoga County, Ohio. The bible says she was born in 1813 in GEAUGA County, Ohio. The New York births put Joseph Fitch and Permelia Miller Fitch in New York State from at least 1808 to about 1817. (Prob John Watson)

From Madison's biography: I was born in Buffalo, Erie County, New York, in the year A.D. 1810, on May 21st: moved when about three years old (1812/13 Probably 1812, as Joseph is supposed to have served in the war of 1812, according to a writup in a Meigs County History. His family probably lived at the reservation while he was gone.) to Garden Flats Indian Reservation, owned by Mary Jimerson (Jemison). I lived there five years, learnt to speak some Indian words and remember them now. Father moved to Ashtabula County, Ohio.(1817) (This was probably Harpersfield, where his wife's parents, Isaac and Lucretia Knapp Miller, lived.) There I saw the first school house. I went to school there two or three weeks. My mother would not let my older brother and me go any longer on account of the rattle snakes being so thick. The next winter we moved to Thompson, Geauga County, Ohio. (Geauga County deed June 16, 1818, Joseph Fitch bought from Emmor Lane, 50 acres in lot 29 in Thompson, Volume 7, page 99.)

According to the New York Census index, Erie County was not "organized" until April 2, 1821, from the parent county of Niagara. ??? There are only two Joseph's in the 1810 New York Census Index. One in Queens (That's out. Not in line with Vermont. Permelia was from Vermont. Her parents lived there and also came to Ohio. Did John and Mary also move to Vermont??) and one in Cuyuga County - 4 or 5 counties EAST of Erie, but in a possible line from Vermont. 12010-01 (One adult male, two young males and one adult female? Oops! Failed to copy the explanation!)

It doesn't say that John W. was born in Erie County, just in New York. Possibly in Cuyuga County? Oh, dear, I'm rambling. It's 2:20AM. Thanks for listening! If anyone can make any sense of this, please let me in on it! Gonna do some more diggin' now. Cookie"

Email received: 09/06/98, from Cookie. It reads as follows:
"I had a lovely letter from cousin Fern Price. She had a visit from Merry Fitch Goudy, from Texas. She is the daughter of Hudson Dakota Fitch, who was the son of Lester Madison Fitch, who was a son of our Madison. She brought the big old family bible, a big hard back, 6 inches thick. She said Madison's brothers were listed. but not Irene, his sister. Fern thinks because she may have been the youngest and born in Ohio.
Listed were:
John Watson Fitch born 1808 in New York
Cyrenus Cllapin (or Celapin)Fitch born March 22, 1813 in Erie County, New York.
And Madison born 1810, Buffalo, Erie County, New York.

Merry was only there about an hour at Fern's sister Alberta's house. Fern went there to see the Bible, but didn't get to copy it. DARN!!! Merry's sister, Mildred, owns the Bible, and told her not to leave it "NO WHERE!" I'm just glad Fern got to see it! We didn't have the information on Cyrenus, and didn't know that John W. was born in New York. Also, I had Sarah Bartlett Fitch, Madison's wife, as born in Cuyahoga County, Ohio. The bible says she was born in 1813 in GEAUGA County, Ohio. The New York births put Joseph Fitch and Permelia Miller Fitch in New York State from at least 1808 to about 1817.

From Madison's biography: I was born in Buffalo, Erie County, New York, in the year A.D. 1810, on May 21st: moved when about three years old (1812/13 Probably 1812, as Joseph is supposed to have served in the war of 1812, according to a writup in a Meigs County History. His family probably lived at the reservation while he was gone.) to Garden Flats Indian Reservation, owned by Mary Jimerson (Jemison). I lived there five years, learnt to speak some Indian words and remember them now. Father moved to Ashtabula County, Ohio.(1817) (This was probably Harpersfield, where his wife's parents, Isaac and Lucretia Knapp Miller, lived.) There I saw the first school house. I went to school there two or three weeks. My mother would not let my older brother and me go any longer on account of the rattle snakes being so thick. The next winter we moved to Thompson, Geauga County, Ohio. (Geauga County deed June 16, 1818, Joseph Fitch bought from Emmor Lane, 50 acres in lot 29 in Thompson, Volume 7, page 99.)

According to the New York Census index, Erie County was not "organized" until April 2, 1821, from the parent county of Niagara. ??? There are only two Joseph's in the 1810 New York Census Index. One in Queens (That's out. Not in line with Vermont. Permelia was from Vermont. Her parents lived there and also came to Ohio. Did John and Mary also move to Vermont??) and one in Cuyuga County - 4 or 5 counties EAST of Erie. but in a possible line from Vermont. 12010-01 (One adult male. two young males and one adult female? Oops! Failed to copy the explanation!)

It doesn't say that John W. was born in Erie County, just in New York. Possibly in Cuyuga County? Oh, dear, I'm rambling. It's 2:20AM. Thanks for listening! If anyone can make any sense of this, please let me in on it! Gonna do some more diggin' now. Cookie"

Creator(s): Barber, John Warner 1798-1885.

Title: South view of Norwalk, Con.

Date: [ca. 1836]

Description: View of Norwalk from the Norwalk River. The elevation on the right is Grummon's Hill. The building before which a flagpole is standing is the old town house. To its right are the spires of the Congregational and Episcopal Churches. The waterfront to the left is lined with commercial buildings. Two large sailing vessels are at the left. Two smaller boats are at the right. The figure of a man sketching in the right foreground is probably a self-portrait. It is not included in the wood engraving as executed.

Format of Original:

Mrs Betty Fitch
14615 Auburn Rd
Ft Wayne, In 46845

Dear Betty,

I have really enjoyed reading over all you sent recently. Sorry it has taken me so long to get something back to you.

We have been trying to get a combined Quarterly issue of 1998 for our society published and mailed. Thank goodness it made it out this week. They are so behind due to members illness and etc I won't go into all that but we have been working our buns off on old equipment such as having to make stencils and 250 copies of each page of about 100 pages, checking each copy, stapling, binding and putting labels on them.

I am at work and brought your package with me to make some copies of what I had time to work with. I then saw you wanted information for the 17th of July I think it was sorry about that. Maybe some of this will help. I hope to maybe get more time over the holiday weekend to work more on it too.

I would love to buy a copy of the book you are working on or even a copy of the last one? Is there any available yet? Who is the lady you are dealing with in Scranton by the name of Fitch? My cuz Donna Fitch Fronduti lives in Forest City outside of Scranton and also comes from these lines I met her online a few years back, she lost her husband to cancer last year in his 40's.

Being retired takes up all my time. I work as secretary for my church, teach crafts twice a month here also. Then put out the Newsletter and Calendar for the Widow/Widowers group I am active with.

I am currently President of our Genealogy Society since the last President moved to DC in March. Doing the Program Chairman's job as she had to resign the one who was filling that slot has done a big NOTHING! And the list goes on and on.

I was in Scranton 4 years ago with a friend and we only got to the Elmhurst Cemetery and took photos and films, naturally it started to rain and the film and batteries all ran out about that time. I did get some info from the office too they were very helpful to me at that time.

I am thrilled to have this new information on your line of the family. I have returned several pages that I have written on with the info I have or corrected what you have. Or I might have some bad info?

As for C William Fitch in Daytona Beach. Yes I have talked to him on the phone and etc, he is also related to Wilbur Fitch who used to call me from Hopbottom until they moved him off his property this past year. I am not sure if anything has happened to him since then? However the one in Daytona promised me for over a year for the materials he had I called and wrote and even sent him $25.00 I think it was for it. Finally got a large print out from a old time computer some good and some questionable. I am not sure he is still alive right now either.

The photos were exciting to received also. Must close and will try and get this out this afternoon or tomorrow. More later.

Always Cuz
Marge

From an old family genealogy

Some have confused him with the John Fitch who invented the steamboat. That John Fitch was born in East Windsor, Conn., Jan. 21, 1743 and died in Bardstown, Kentucky, July 2, 1798.

Gideon was made executor of the estate of his half-brother, our John Fitch. Nathaniel Fitch was the oldest son of John Fitch. He was born Feb. 12, 1781 and died Sept. 14, 1839. (The date on Nathaniel is correct but he was not the oldest son, as Gideon was. According to the inscription in the Robert's Cemetary Gideon was born in 1771 and Nathaniel was not born until 1781/2. According to the census taken in 1790 there were other children too.)

Error as Gideon & Nathaniel were brothers or half-brothers

(Lodeville)

In August 29, 1801 (~~or 1803~~) he married Sarah Keeler, the 16 year old daughter of Paul Keeler, Jr., and his wife Sarah Burt Cornwell. SOURCES

1. Birth: FHL file #1421422-The Descendents of Thos. Fitch through his son John Fitch (m. Lindall), (Collection of family group sheets of R.L. Fitch with proof).
The Compendium of American Genealogy, Vol .III, p. 100.
Marriage: Wife named in will as Elizabeth
Death: Will written 6 Jan 1748, probated 26 Feb 1748, probate #2223; Fairfield,CT Probate Records 1648-1880, FHL film # 1018748. Names sons Nathaniel and John, daughters Elizabeth and Susanna, all as minor children. Copy Fitch folder.

Assume these are the ones I saw but there was no "proof" on anything. Just names + dates hand written. I have copies of those group sheets.

The problem seems to have been for the researchers that he was called John Fitch Jr. so most assumed he was John's son when actually John was Nathaniel's son + called John, Jr. because there was an old John Fitch still living.

Eventually Marge pulled her info from the internet but many picked it up and used it as "facts" in there own web pages so this is an error that will be found in many genealogies.

Dear Karen,

Please accept this first "shipment" of my file on the Fitches with the hope it may prove of interest. To help my memory, enclosed you will find:

1. "Preacher In The Wilderness", written by my brother while at Duke Divinity School. Please note the manuscript was written in 1981, fully ten years before J.T. published his version. Michael always said, "Well, he just beat me to it!" As they say, timing is everything. IN the Rev. James book #2
2. Last Will of James Fitch, Norwalk, Ct.
3. 1660 town plat, showing James' land holdings.
4. Fitch family burial plot, purchased by Abijah, Auburn, NY
5. Decatur-Tribune article on Michael during his brief tenure as curator.
6. "The World of Fitches" overview and order form.(I do not own this, yet.)
7. Headstone rubbings (James Fitch)
8. Photocopy of our family crest. The drawing was done by Michael, taken from the framed crest-on-porcelain, which was in his house. I remember seeing that crest in my parents house ever since I was a little boy and, of course, paid it no mind. To this day, I have no idea where it came from, or who commissioned that piece. I'll find out and let you know. It is my assumption that the various family lines took the liberty to modify/embelish the crest over the years. However, I have adopted this particular version, from which my gold signet ring was custom-made.

There, now I won't trouble you (or me!) with duplicate mailings. This, Karen is just the start of what I have to send, and additional items will be copied and forwarded to you in the near future. Just bear with me.

Regards,

Steven

Historical Society's New Curator Has Long Interest In History

By Vikl Henneberry

Ever since Michael G. Fitch was seven-years-old he has been interested in history.

At that time he started doing his family's geneology and claims to have discovered that a relative of his named John Fitch actually invented the steamboat instead of Robert Fulton.

Recently, Fitch of Westfield, New Jersey, was hired to become the first full-time curator of the Macon County Historical Society museum located on North Fork Road.

The historical society owns and operates the North Fork Museum and is in the process of constructing a children's museum in the former Excelsior South School.

In an interview with the Decatur Tribune, Fitch explained what a curator is, present plans of the Macon County Historical Society and its future goals.

According to Fitch, a curator is an individual who is responsible for the collection of objects in a museum and interpreting the collection in s that the publi stand and appr and culture of collections.

Fitch, 24, s as curator fo County Histo museum not being respons collections, bu make suggesti broaden the an 1890 house with bedroom, parlor, kitchen and child's room; tools by farmers of Macon County; pioneer crafts such as spinning, weaving, and candle making; and the history of business and industry in Decatur.

Fitch commented that the historical society plans to have a "hands-on" policy in which school children will actually be able to participate in the demonstrations of pioneer crafts.

He said the long range goals for the historical society include a Prairie Village on the back lot of the museum which would house a log cabin, barn, mill, school, law office and bandstand area.

He said the one room school house that is currently located in the North Fork Museum will be moved to the Children's Museum.

The North Fork Museum would then be made into an auditorium for children's theatre, lectures, concerts and the showing of films that would be of interest to the historical society and public.

100 Years of Family History

The National Society Daughters of American Revolution (NSDAR) Library, in the heart of Washington, D.C., is one of the country's premier genealogical libraries. It began a century ago as a modest 600-book collection used to assist NSDAR staff genealogists in verifying membership applications. Shortly after it was established it opened to the public.

From its inception, the library has collected books and materials on local American histories, including state, county, town, and church records, as well as genealogies, biographies, and vital records.

Nestled in the shelves containing about 20,000 family histories may be a rare genealogy published many years ago in limited quantities. Its discovery may enable you to ferret out some missing branches on your family tree, or connect you to an ancestor who fought in the American Revolution.

Today the NSDAR Library boasts a specialized collection of American genealogical and historical publications and manuscripts that includes 140,000 volumes and 250,000 research files, making it an important repository that is worth a visit. While many of its volumes can be found at other libraries, it has large numbers of one-of-a-kind genealogical publications and family histories. People often assume the collections relate only to the American Revolution. While that is a major focal point, extensive sources also are available for the Colonial and post-Revolutionary War periods and the 19th and 20th centuries. Published passenger ship records from all time periods are available. Recent additions include volumes relating to German, Irish, and Italian immigrants who arrived in the mid- to late 19th century. Family histories, many originally published or prepared in limited quantities, comprise about one-quarter of the book collection. The library adds between 4,000 and 5,000 new books each year.

One way to access the holdings is to consult the DAR Library Catalog, which is available in hundreds of public and university libraries or can be purchased from the NSDAR. Volume one of this catalog contains listings of family histories and genealogies that the library acquired prior to 1983; volume two lists the state and local histories and records added prior to 1985; volume three includes all types of books acquired between 1985 and 1992.

Some of the treasures of the library's collection are found in the 14,000 volumes of previously unpublished sources gathered by the NSDAR's Genealogical Records Committee since the 1920s. These include Bible records, cemetery transcriptions, court record abstracts, censuses, and military and vital records from all over the United States. You may find that long-sought Bible record with the missing birth date of your great-grandmother, or perhaps the name of your Irish ancestor's village, recorded on his tombstone in a Kansas cemetery. The stone may be gone now, but the information on it can be accessed.

Stashed away in 400 drawers is another gem of the library—the analytical card index. Started about 70 years ago, this index (separate from the library's card catalog) can be used to access information buried in books and files throughout the collection. When exposed through this index, many obscure references in old county histories and the Genealogical Records Committee books can lead genealogists to other sources and clues. For example, if one of your great-great-grandfathers served as a municipal official in a small Wisconsin community, but the information is tucked away in an unindexed county history, this index might provide help.

In the Office of the Registrar General is an index that provides access to NSDAR membership applications. The library houses documentation sent in since the 1890s to support the applications. A file may contain any type of documentation that was available to the applicant: Bible records, family papers, vital records, and research notes. Researchers may request a search for a specific file by providing the name of a Revolutionary War ancestor. To protect an individual's privacy, personal information relating to members and data after 1910 is not available. Written inquiries regarding the supporting documentation for a specific application are accepted. The three-volume "DAR Patriot Index," lists the Revolutionary War ancestors of NSDAR members and serves as a summary of the information maintained in this office.

The manuscript collection contains research notes, personal letters, and other unpublished genealogical materials. Some have come from genealogists, some from DAR members' families. The library also maintains collections on Native-American and African-American genealogy and history and there are basic reference sources for European research.

The Seimes Microfilm Center houses a collection of microform records that supplements the library's holdings.

For additional information on the library, its holdings, and procedures write: NSDAR Library, 1776 D St. N.W., Washington, DC 20006-5392, or call (202) 879-3229. Library hours are: 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. Monday through Friday and 1 to 5 P.M. Sundays (except holiday weekends); closed Saturdays and federal holidays. Non-members pay a $5 daily entrance fee. The DAR's internet Home Page is: http://www.dar.org/~revolt/ ◻

COLONIAL FAMILIES OF AMERICA by Lawrence
Volume 17

Norwalk Mr. Fitch was at a meeting held in Norwalk May 6, 1664, empowered to bring the matter to an issue: Thomas Fitch's house and home-lot was seventh from the original settlement's northern limitation line, and though he was a rich man in the town, his dwelling was severely plain but substantially built. His original well may still be found on the site of his first house, its gray stones moss-covered, its water clear and cool. Mr. Fitch was also engaged in various peace-time negotiations with the Indians, one such activity appearing in the old record as follows: "It was voted that Mr. Fitch and Matthew Marvin, Jr., are desired and apointed, and it is left to their discretion, to treat with the Indians touching the lands between the west branch of Norwalk river and Saketuk river: to git it to be marked out and bounded twelve miles up the contery at the least, and that it may be dun and finished according to law, and being so founded and marked, the Indians are to have their 4 coate." His success in handling Indian matters gave him so widespread a reputation that the General Court in May, 1650, chose him one of a quartette of Norwalk's "strongest settlers" to lay out land on Gold Hill (now Golden Hill, Bridgeport) for an Indian settlement.

Thomas Fitch was evidently a wise and prudent man, for he was chosen to act as mediator between controversial groups of hay cutters on a disputed tract, "Mr. Thomas Fitch to goe with the sayed men when they goe to cutt or fetch away, to make answer for and in behalfe of the towne, and the rest to be silent."

Thomas Fitch, Sr., died in 1704; his will was probated May 19, 1704, at Fairfield Connecticut; married, November 1, 1632, at Bocking, England, Anna Stacey, daughter of William and Anna (or Agnes) (Garrold) Stacey, of Bocking, England. At St. Mary's Church at Bocking the item in the old register reads: "Thomas Fytch Junior and Anna Stacie nupti, November, 1632." The Stacey lineage has from Anna back been clearly established for five generations to John Stace, of Epping, County Essex, where he was buried in 1544. Issue of Thomas and Anna (Stacey) Fitch, among two sons and three daughters,

Thomas Fitch, Jr., who was born in Bocking, England; came to America with his parents, and remained a resident of Norwalk, Connecticut, all his life; on May 21, 1657, by order of the General Court he was declared a freeman of the colony; he was active in the military life of his town and took part in King Philip's War; while still a very young man he was rated sergeant, in 1665 he was ensign, and in 1673 he was captain; his name appears often on the Norwalk town records; died in 1684; married, about 1662, Ruth Clark, baptized at Milford, February 20, 1641-42, daughter of George and Sarah Clark, of Milford, Connecticut. Issue, among two sons and two daughters,

Thomas Fitch, III, who was born at Norwalk, Connecticut, about 1665; was not yet out of his 'teens when his father's early death occurred; he became king's commissioner and notary for Norwalk, and was well to the fore in the civic life of the colony; died, in May, 1731, at Norwalk, Connecticut; married, first, Sarah ———; married, second, Rhoda ———; married, third, Rachel ———. Issue, by first marriage, three sons and one daughter. His second son, Thomas Fitch IV, became distinguished as governor of Connecticut. Samuel Fitch, the eldest son, achieved the post of crown justice. The third son,

James Fitch was born at Norwalk, Connecticut; he served as deputy for Norwalk in the Connecticut assembly in 1753, 1754, 1755, 1758, and 1759; he led a quiet and an humble life, but gained and retained the esteem of his contempo es. "He and his descendants," writes a western banker, "present unbroken chains of pie d devotedness to the cause of religion, before which all worldly honors and distinctions fade and scarcely deserve remembered." Died February 2, 1790, aged eighty-eight. "One of the fierce snow-s that broke in olden times over Norwalk occurred in the first part of February, 17.0. (second day of that month there passed from these mortal to the thither shores the last four remarkable children, James Fitch, who had for some years outlived his brothers ernor Thomas and Honorable Samuel and probably his sister Elizabeth (first Mrs. Raymond, and second Mrs. Elisha Kent). On the day set for the burial of this good devout Christian, and respected by all who knew him, the storm had reached its heig the interment was postponed. The deceased who by less than a twelfth month surv faithful wife (Mary Haynes) had been cared for, in his last days, by his son Ha whose house he died. He left several sons and daughters, and among them Elijah, wh date of his father's decease, had himself been nearly forty years married." Married (Haynes) Buckingham, widow of Reverend Jedediah Buckingham, and daughter of W and Mercy (Marvin) Haynes. William Haynes came from England at an early age the issue of James and Mary (Haynes-Buckingham) Fitch was

Elijah Fitch, who lived in Norwalk, Connecticut; married, October 25, 175 Smith, born December 20, 1731, daughter of Robert and Judith (Fountain) Smith. issue was

Stephen Fitch, who was born October 25, 1757, at Norwalk, Connecticut claims he and his wife went West because they were tired of rye bread and pr where wheat could be raised for white bread; died July 26, 1829; married, S 1779, Hannah Betts, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth (Griffith) Betts; she was b 30, 1762, and died March 28, 1809. Among their issue was Abijah Fitch, born in January, 1799; he was one of the pioneer settlers of New York and became one of that town's most enterprising and progressive citizens a prominent merchant with a store on Genesee Street. He helped further the build Auburn and Syracuse Railroad in 1835, investing money in the undertaking and the board of directors. In church work also he took an active part, and was a mem choir of the First Presbyterian Church at Auburn. Shortly after 1829 Abijah Fi of Mr. Dill the Mount house, a large double structure with four great brick chim had been erected in 1809. He was a close friend of William Henry Seward, and panied him on his memorable trip around the world. He died on or about January 3 Auburn, New York; married, February 10, 1821, at Lansingburgh, Laura N (also Hannah Nelson and Lannah Wilson in county histories). Issue, among twel eleven reaching maturity,

* Frances Fitch, born January 16, 1834, at Auburn, New York; died Novembe and is buried in the Fort Hill Cemetery, at Auburn; married Theodore Pettibone C412.
